“One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.” Psalm 145:4

Our Tuesday morning Men’s Bible Study has been studying the book of Judges over the last several weeks. It is a violent, exciting, disturbing part of the Bible, quite unlike most of the rest of the Book. (We would love to have you men join us for just an hour at 7:30 on Tuesday mornings.)

Judges recounts the tales of a dozen warrior-rulers raised up by God to deliver his ancient people from oppressive enemies during the period between the conquest of Canaan and the beginning of the monarchy under Saul and then David (roughly 1250 -1000 BC). It repeats a pattern of faithfulness, unfaithfulness, judgment, repentance, and deliverance. Over and over the cycle repeats itself: the people fall away from their worship of God and keeping his commandments. They embrace the immorality and idolatry of the nations around them. And shortly they face military opposition and bondage. They cry out to God and beg his forgiveness. He sends a deliverer, and they know a season of his blessing. And then the dreadful pattern begins anew.

One of the questions we have been forced to ponder is: how is it that God’s people have repeatedly done so poorly in sharing their faith with the children who came after them? Just one chapter into the book we read, “that whole generation was gathered to their ancestors, and another generation grew up after them, who did not know the Lord or the work that he had done for them.” (Judges 2:10)

I think every one of us has been begging God for his help in bringing our own children and grandchildren into a solid, lasting, saving relationship with Jesus. I am convinced there is no greater privilege - or responsibility - in this life than that of doing the very best we can, through our witness and example, and through our prayers, to help those in our own families come to know, love, and follow the Lord.

Ultimately, of course, it is up to them. (And the Enemy loves nothing more than browbeating us with guilt and remorse over our failures as parents.)

As a New Year is just around the corner let us resolve to make our highest priority that we will do all we can to pass the torch of faith to those who come after us. Let this be reflected in our lives personally and in our church life corporately. Let us declare with the Psalmist: “Things that we have heard and known, that our ancestors have told us...we will tell the coming generation...that the next generation might know them...and rise up and tell them to their children, so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget his works, but keep his commandments.” (Psalm78:3-7)

I wish you a very Happy, Healthy, and Blessed New Year.

Love to you in our Lord,

John W. Howe
Senior Pastor
When you hear the phrase “Just Do It” I am sure your mind thinks of a certain athletic sneaker and clothing brand. But long before Nike claimed, “Just Do It” as their motto, a man carrying a message of hope to Frontier America carried that motto with him. John Wesley blazing a trail of salvation and sanctification was busy preaching, “Just Do Something” to the men and women he met. The message “Just Do Something” was passed from Wesley to Robert Sheffey, to other circuit riding preachers who would go on to form the movement that later became the Methodist Church. It was not uncommon for the Methodist pastor to be in town only two or three days per month. That means that the members accomplished the everyday tasks of being the church. Recovering this part of America’s Christian heritage is powerful. The saints were reaching the community and tending to their needs. The saints were sharing the message of salvation to those who had not yet heard it. The saints were fighting against alcoholism, poverty, and homelessness. The saints were applying James’ litmus test for Christianity by caring for the orphans and widows and fighting the impurities of the world (James 1:27).

The Apostle Paul carried this message even before John Wesley did. He instructed the spiritual leaders in the church at Ephesus that their job was to “equip the saints to do the work of ministry”. And later in that same passage that the “whole body, [should] be joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love (Ephesians 4:12-16).

The Lord Jesus proclaimed that message before The Apostle Paul. In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus commanded his followers to “Go and make disciples of all nations.” Those words of Jesus telling his followers to go and do something have been repeated and have motivated countless Christians to engage in missions, yet Jesus commands his followers three times in Luke 9:10 to “go”. He tells a man who wanted to follow him, “your duty is to go and preach the coming of the kingdom of God (Luke 9:60). A few verses later, as he sends out his disciples, Jesus tells them, “Go not, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves” (Luke 10:3). Then at the end of the chapter, Jesus tells a religious law expert about showing love and mercy to your neighbor instructs him to, “Go and do the same” (Luke 10:37).

“Go and do something” is a command to action. Wesley, Paul, an Apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ, understood that you cannot follow Jesus and stay where you are. It’s not possible. Going requires movement and action in the direction you have been sent. As we enter a new calendar year, I want to encourage everyone to “Go and do something”. Maybe you are searching for what it is that God is calling you to do. Come and talk with me. I would love to share with you the multiple ministry opportunities The Lake of the Woods Church provides for its members and community to serve. Join us Thursdays as we feed the homeless. Volunteer at Living Water Community Clinic, our free medical clinic. Help out at one of our after school Good News Clubs. Volunteer to help at RISE, our ministry to adults with special needs. Take training to serve as a Foster parent or Respite care grandparent in our foster ministry. Partner with Elder David Blackistone providing home repairs to elderly and disabled in our Home Helps ministry. Volunteer at Wilderness Food Pantry. These are just a few of the ministries that our church offers or partners with. Whatever ministry God calls you to this year, go with great joy and Just Do It “heartily, as for the Lord…” (Colossians 3:23).

Partnering with YOU in the Gospel,

Pastor Adam Colson
I love running. I don’t know why since I used to hate to run, but somehow with the help of my coach (my wife Lisa), I’ve come to love running. At first, I liked the physical benefits of running—the weight loss, muscle toning and cardio strengthening—but, the more I ran, the more I began to realize the spiritual benefits of running.

Running makes me physically weak. Though I may think I am strong in life, running brings me to a place of weakness. If I focus on my weariness and exhaustion, it just makes the fatigue feel worse; however, if I focus on Him, I find strength. My physical needs take me to the heart of my real need, my spiritual need for The Lord. Though the root of Paul’s thorn in his side of 2 Corinthians 12 is often debated, whether it was a physical ailment or impairment or a spiritual challenge, the truth remains, “But he said to me, ‘My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.’” (12:9)

When I run before dawn, I run in amazement of the stars in the heavens. “The heavens declare the glory of God.” (Psalm 19:1) When I run in the cold, I find warmth in Him. “For the Lord God is a sun and shield.” (Psalm 84:11) And at times I have broken out in tears as I run and ponder the miracle that is the undeniable truth of the resurrection of Christ. Upon realizing he had seen the risen Christ, the apostle Thomas said “My Lord and my God!” (John 20:28) Throughout it all, I am emptied of my so-called strength, and filled with the strength of God’s Holy Spirit.

I’m not saying this because I think everyone should become a long distance runner. And everyone should check with their doctor prior to embarking on an exercise routine. What I am saying is that in Scripture, the Christian life is often described as a race. As many of us make resolutions to exercise, consider the spiritual benefits of exercise over and above the physical benefits, that these benefits would be more successful in helping to keep our resolution. It truly is a win/win situation. As Paul finished in his exhortation on the thorn in his side, “For when I am weak, then I am strong.” (2 Cor. 12:10)

Enthusiastically His,

Jordan

Winter Safety for Seniors

During the winter months, ice, snow and cold temperatures can make life challenging for everyone. Slippery sidewalks and cold weather can cause a wide range of injuries and illnesses -- especially for seniors.

Here is some helpful advice for preventing common winter dangers that the elderly population faces.

1) Avoid Slipping on Ice
Icy, snowy roads and sidewalks make it easy to slip and fall. “Unfortunately, falls are a common occurrence for senior citizens, especially during the winter months,” says Dr. Stanley Wang, a physician at Stanford Hospital in Palo Alto, Calif. Often these falls cause major injuries such as hip and wrist fractures, head trauma and major lacerations. While younger people often recover relatively quickly from such injuries, older adults face complications, which Dr. Wang says are a leading cause of death from injury in men and women over the age of 65.
Make sure to wear shoes with good traction and non-skid soles, and stay inside until the roads are clear. Replace a worn cane tip to making walking easier. Take off shoes as soon as you return indoors because often snow and ice attach to the soles and, once melted, can lead to slippery conditions inside. To find out more, read our article on Preventing Senior Falls

2) Dress for Warmth
Cold temperatures can lead to frostbite and hypothermia -- a condition where the body temperature dips too low. According to the CDC, more than half of hypothermia-related deaths were of people over the age of 65.
So, don’t let indoor temperatures go too low and dress in layers. Going outside? Wear warm socks, a heavy coat, a warm hat, gloves and a scarf. In very cold temperatures, cover all exposed skin. Use a scarf to cover your mouth and protect your lungs.
Your body temperature should never dip below 95 degrees -- if it does get medical assistance immediately.

3) Fight Wintertime Depression
Because it can be difficult and dangerous to get around, many seniors have less contact with others during cold months. This can breed feelings of loneliness and isolation.
To help avoid these issues, family members can check in on seniors as often as possible; even a short, daily phone call can make a big difference. Seniors can also arrange a check-in system with neighbors and friends, where each person looks in on one or two others daily.

The New Year can be very exciting. The challenge of a lifestyle change or introduction of a new activity or perhaps the resurrection of a past activity, brings each of us hope. It is a chance to “reset”, “get back on track”, get the weight off” or improve our quality of life. It brings hope to shake off things that have brought discouragement or stopped our spiritual growth and walk with Jesus. I, like many of you, look forward to the new year and the hope that only Jesus can bring both in my personal life and in children’s ministry.

Sunday School
As we start out this new year, 2018, we are making a change to our Sunday School curriculum. Beginning January 7, we will be joining with the LOWC family and youth ministries in the teaching the D6 curriculum. D6 is a family aligned curriculum for every generation. The concept for the material is based on Deuteronomy 6 where God instructs parents to diligently teach their children”...impress the commandments on your children...when you sit...walk down the road... lie down and get up”Deuteronomy 6:4-7. Our responsibility as a ministry is to partner with families to help them to grow spiritually as a family. Each Sunday, parents, teens and children will be learning the same story and bible point with age appropriate material. The D6 material will provide parents with tools to encourage and create faith conversations at home and as they do life together.

LOWC Kids Club
Bible Skills, Thrills and Drills class begins again on Wednesday, January 3rd. We will be learning the books of the New Testament as well as learning memory verses. It is a fun night of activities and learning how to use their bibles.

A New Year…new opportunities.

CentriKid Informational Meeting
Our informational meeting for CentriKid camp is on Sunday, January 14th from 12:15 - 1:30 in the Children’s Discovery Zone. This meeting is for 3rd - 5th graders and their parents who are interested in attending CentriKid Camp this summer. Lunch will be provided for the meeting.

CentriKid Camp is held at Eagle Eyrie Baptist Conference Center in Lynchburg, VA. Dates for camp are June 25 - 29. Deadline to register for camp is February 13th. Check out the CentriKid website, http://www.CentriKid.com, for more information and details about camp.

Happy New Year…. welcome 2018! As we start a brand-new year we know the year will bring new adventures, new challenges and prayerfully many new blessings. We reflect on the many accomplishments and blessings The Lake of the Woods Church Preschool and Child Care Center have received. We celebrate with the knowledge that 2017 provided us with 100 percent enrollment in our preschool and 100 percent enrollment in our school-age programs. We continue to have the best and most dedicated preschool teachers and daycare teachers around. The Preschool Program held their 13th Annual Christmas Breakfast and Program on Friday, December 8th.

We are moving forward to a new season of activities and possibilities. The cooler weather is here and it reminds us of potential chance of inclement weather. The CCC is open on snow days and teacher workdays and we do offer a drop-in service for registered children ages three to thirteen if space is available. We have three teacher work days in January 15th, 22nd, and the 23rd.

Registration for the Preschool Program and Summer Program begin on February 1st for current and returning students. On February 15th we will begin to accept registration for new enrollees for the Preschool Program. Also on the 15th, we begin accepting Full-Time students for the Summer Program and then open up for partial week attendees and drop-ins on March 1st. For the upcoming school year (2018-19) the Combined Program (before & after care school care) registration begins on February 1st for returning students and March 1st for new enrollees. All slots for all programs are first come, first serve. For more information please contact Belinda Divelbiss or Tracy Dodson at 972-2349.

Please pray for this Ministry as we strive to provide quality care for the Child Care Center and provide the best Christian educational environment for our Preschool.

4) Prepare for Power Outages
Winter storms can lead to power outages. Make sure you have easy access to flashlights and a battery-powered radio in case the power goes out. Stockpile warm blankets. Longer power outages can spoil the food in your refrigerator and freezer so keep a supply of non-perishable foods that can be eaten cold on hand. If the power goes out, wear several layers of clothing, including a hat. Move around a lot to raise your body temperature. Check out this winter weather checklist from the CDC to make sure you have everything you may need.

6) Eat a Varied Diet
Because people spend more time indoors and may eat a smaller variety of foods, nutritional deficits -- especially Vitamin D deficiency -- can be a problem. Nicole Morrissey, a registered dietitian in southwest Michigan, recommends consuming foods that are fortified with Vitamin D, such as milk, grains and seafood options like tuna and salmon.

7) Prevent Carbon Monoxide Poisoning
Using a fireplace, gas heater or lanterns can lead to carbon monoxide poisoning. Ensure your safety by checking the batteries on your carbon monoxide detector and buying an updated one if you need to.

The most important tip to keep in mind during the colder months is to ask for help. If you need to clear your property of snow and ice, don’t hesitate to ask a family member or neighbor, or hire a professional. Arrange rides to the grocery store and doctor’s appointments—many communities have shuttle services specifically for seniors. Finding a caregiver to assist your senior on a regular basis can also help keep them safer all year round. Don’t be afraid to reach out for help.

Wintertime certainly poses challenges for seniors, but with a bit of planning and awareness, you will stay healthy and experience the joys of springtime soon enough.

In honor of the LOWC Crafters:

As I thank the Lord for you all, I am reminded of the story of Lydia.

“And on the Sabbath day we went out of the city to the riverside, where prayer was customarily made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who met there. Now a certain woman named Lydia heard us. She was a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God. The Lord opened her heart to heed the things spoken by Paul. And when she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay.” So she persuaded us.” Acts 16:13-15

She was a seller of purple cloth. Lydia was a crafter! She was a crafter who worshiped God! Paul was on his second missionary journey when he crossed paths with Lydia in Philippi. She had gathered to pray with her ladies group. (Sound familiar?) Though Lydia worshiped God, she had not heard the Gospel. The Lord opened her heart to believe when Paul shared the Gospel with her, and she was baptized. Now, I get a kick out of this part. God gave her a heart to support missions. (Sound familiar?) She insisted that Paul and the missionaries stay at her house. (I bet it was filled with crafts). In this very practical way, she put her full support behind those who were spreading the Good News. Like you all, Lydia set aside her own agenda to support missions. Lastly, (I also get a kick out of this) Luke writes, “So she persuaded us.” I think Lydia may have been a “hard-charging” crafter. It clearly worked, and God used her in a special way to support these first missionaries. Indeed, God has used each of you to advance His Kingdom.

I love you all and count it a great blessing to bring all generations together to host such a successful Craft Bazaar each year. Additionally, it is a tremendous blessing to lead the youth into the mission field. Thank you all for sending us! May God add His blessing to every minute spent crafting and to every dollar raised. May He continue to grant us success in our efforts to “Make Christ Known!”

Blessings to All,
John

January 4th Wednesday Night Youth Group resumes

January 10th Game Night- Down on the Farm Game Night. Teens will be dressing up in their best “farm” attire and competing in crazy, messy games to earn points for their team. Canned goods will be collected for the local food bank. The teens will hear a message about God’s harvest.

January 19-21st Winter Missions Retreat Teens will head to Eastover Retreat Center in Surry, VA for an action-packed weekend of team building and training for the summer mission field. The retreat is required for those who plan to be summer missionaries in 2018. Teens will be trained by missionaries in: team-building, cross-cultural training, sports training, and evangelism training. Our theme this year is: Faith on Fire. We will hear morning and evening messages from the book of Acts. Pray that God breaks the hearts of our teens to be on fire for the Gospel! The cost of this trip is only $25.

January 31st Summer Missions Meeting Teen missionaries and their parents will have dinner together and then meet to discuss summer missions plans and submit applications. Payment plans based on summer commitments will be established at this time. Please plan to attend.
The Orange Pregnancy Center is part of the Pregnancy Centers of Central Virginia (PCCV), a Christian ministry dedicated to helping women, teens and families in central Virginia communities.

Their vision:
- Life assured for every baby.
- Hope renewed for every family.
- Lives transformed through Jesus Christ.

The Orange Center celebrated its 14th year this November. The volunteer base in Orange is growing, and this year the center completed a total “refresh” to update their space and make the office more appealing to clients. 2017 brought new programs, including the Heart2Heart labor and delivery class that is now being implemented.

PCCV opened the doors to its first center in 1984 on Second Street in Charlottesville and now has four locations - Albemarle, Downtown Charlottesville, Culpeper and Orange. In its first 30 years, the ministry had served over 25,000 clients.

Their clients come from all backgrounds and every walk of life. When they enter their centers they are received with love and care. The network offers a safe and confidential environment for women to receive loving counseling, information and free services, including:

- Pregnancy Testing
- Confidential options counseling
- Medically-accurate information on abortion (non-graphic), abortion alternatives, abortion procedures
- Medical Ultrasound
- Adoption Information & Referrals
- Sexual integrity, healthy relationship, & STD information and counseling
- Post-abortion care and support
- Labor, delivery and lactation classes
- Bible Studies
- Material support: maternity clothing, baby clothing, diapers, formula, and much more

How you can pray:
- That they continue to reach more and more clients in the area.
- Specifically that the Lord draws in the clients who are considering abortion.
- That the Lord is preparing more people’s hearts to become counselors here and that counselors who have finished training will be able to spend more time counseling in the office.
- For their staff, volunteers, and board – protection over their families as they contribute to this ministry.
- That the Lord will provide funds for an ultrasound machine for the Orange Center.

January Prayer for Missions

Our Gracious Heavenly Father, you hold all life as precious. We ask you to cradle, guard and protect those most innocent and defenseless among us who are still in their mother’s wombs. We thank you for the work of the Crisis Pregnancy Centers in preserving the lives of these little ones whom our Lord Jesus Christ invited to come to him; we ask it in his name. Amen
Happy New Year from Women’s Guild! Women’s Guild meets regularly on the first and third Thursday of each month from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in Friendship Hall of LOW Church. Each meeting consists of a short devotion, prayer, and a featured speaker, plus a light meal and time to socialize. We also participate in monthly service projects for those in need. All women are welcome, so grab a friend and join us for worship, fellowship, and fun.

Here’s what’s coming up:

January 18: Becoming an Author
Retired teacher and children’s author Judy Zummo will speak about her journey to fulfill her lifelong dream of becoming a writer.

February 1: Threads of Faith
Speaker Pat Boord is a champion bench presser and author of Bench Pressing Threads of Faith. She will speak about the faith journey that led her to the unlikely sport of bench pressing.

February 15: Our speaker will be Jessica Molzahn with Intervarsity Christian Fellowship.

Upcoming Service Projects:

January Service Project: Bags of Hope
Bags of Hope makes transition to foster care easier for children in crisis. They send monogrammed duffle bags filled with comfort items with children to their new foster care home. Women’s Guild will help collect items to send in these bags. Thoughtful care items might include a soft blanket or stuffed toy, pajamas, new toothbrush or other personal care items. Also needed is warm winter clothing, including sweatshirts, flannel shirts, UNDERWEAR, SOCKS and slippers for ages toddler through teens. We will be hearing more about this ministry in January.

February Service Project: Wilderness Food Pantry
Wilderness Food Pantry in Locust Grove is a shared project of the LOW Lions and Lioness Clubs that serves many needy families in our area. Food donations often drop after the holidays, just when need is the greatest. We can give the Food Pantry a big boost with our collection of non-perishable foods to stock their shelves.
