"Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed." (James 5:14-16)

Dear LOWC Family,

Margaret Thode shared an idea with me for a Lenten Prayer Project. She saw this in another church, and she suggested we try it here as a kind of Lenten Discipline.

Ash Wednesday falls on March 6, and starting that day we will have a Prayer Basket in the Narthex and in the Gathering Place, with small cards on which to write. Anyone desiring prayer for healing or any other need is invited to write your name – or that of someone else needing prayer – on a card and place it in the basket.

If you wish to include a very brief description of the specific need, you are invited to do so. Or you may wish to simply write the name.

Then anyone else in the church is invited to pick up a card with the commitment to pray for that person or that need during the remainder of Lent.

At Easter the person doing the praying may wish to tell the one he or she has been praying for, “It has been my privilege to pray for you during this Lenten season.” Or it can remain a spiritual confidentiality between the one praying and the Lord.

Either way this Project can be a source of wonderful blessing to both pray-er and pray-ee. And I am delighted to pass along this invitation to everyone.

Let’s expect God to do great things in our midst.

Love to you in our Lord,

[Signature]

Dr. John W. Howe, Senior Pastor
March 2019
This year our church will once again venture to New Mexico to work among the Navajo people. As always, we are expecting God to do great things as we minister in Smith Lake and Crowne Point. Maybe you have seen the registration table in the Gathering Place or have read about the trip in the service leaflet or the Cross Currents Newsletter. But maybe you are hesitant to go. You may be wondering “Why should I go to Navajo Nation”?

Marti Wade (a global leader in short term missions) encourages people to consider five principles when deciding whether or not to go on a short-term mission trip. Consider these thoughts when considering whether or not you should go with us to Navajo Nation this year.

1. Navajo Nation is a great way to help our church obey the Great Commission and the Great Commandment. The mission of God to make disciples of all nations and tribes is the mission of his church in the world today. Jesus sends us out as the Father sent him, by his grace and for his glory. Demonstrating and sharing God’s love with others is something we were created for. God is a missional God. The Bible is a missional book and we are his children, missional by nature.

2. Navajo Nation provides an opportunity for us to walk with God’s global servants. We will be working alongside Navajo pastors, Navajo elders, and many of the Navajo people. A trip like this will give you a chance to explore their culture, to learn from them and to discover how they see their work and their world. Perhaps God will call you to partner further with these servants, to join their ranks, or take the skills and lessons you learn and apply them in another context.

3. Navajo Nation provides you an opportunity to step out in faith. Do you think God is calling you to surrender more to him? If Navajo Nation is your next big step, you’ll have to trust him for the resources to make that happen, for others to walk with you, for love for those you meet, for grace to be flexible as the experience unfolds, and for mercy when you make mistakes. By engaging in the unknown on this trip, you may learn how to better walk with God day by day and moment by moment.

4. Navajo Nation will allow you to take a journey of personal growth. It’s almost a cliché now. As many of those who have gone with us in previous years report, you may receive more than you give. Many find the journey of personal growth on a mission trip to be life-changing. The German philosopher Martin Buber said it well: “All journeys have secret destinations of which the traveler is unaware.” If God is tugging on you to be a part of this year’s Navajo Nation trip, it’s likely he has something he wants to do in your life through this experience.

5. Navajo Nation will allow you to encourage others. The world needs more missionaries, even those who go for a short term. The Navajo trip allows us the opportunity to leave behind our comforts and routines to serve those who may be vulnerable, and to share the message of the gospel. It allows us to listen to those who have no voice, and to learn from God’s global church. If the Holy Spirit is nudging you to go, look to God to overcome the opposition and obstacles you may face. Your service can encourage others to glorify God for what he is doing in your life and to pursue their own God-given purposes. If you are willing to go, others may be able to picture themselves going too.

If you would like more information on this year’s trip, please come see me or talk to Elder David Blackistone. We would love to have you join us.
Men of LOWC,

It’s time for March Madness!!! No, I’m not talking about the basketball tournament I’m talking about the Men’s Retreat! (Okay, it won’t be a time of madness). It is my prayer that it will be a wonderful time of food, fun, and fellowship. Join us Saturday, March 23rd and Sunday, March 24th for our annual Men’s Retreat at Graves Mountain Lodge. This year the theme is “Journey with Christ,” what that means and what that looks like as we navigate the different seasons of life. In his book, No Man Left Behind, Patrick Morley points out:

- Men in church face the same problems and issues as men outside of the church.
- Jesus poured His life and ministry into twelve men. On these men He built the church.
- If you disciple men, marriages will improve, then families, then the church, and finally the world.

We men face unique challenges that only we understand, and only through the faithful pursuit of Jesus as disciples can we hope to change our marriages, our families, the church and the world. Join us March 23rd and 24th as we commit to a lifelong “Journey with Christ.”

The price of the Retreat is $130 for Saturday and Sunday or $65 for Saturday only. The price includes breakfast Saturday through breakfast Sunday morning, lodging, lots of snacks, a hike/free time, and of course there will be an all you can eat steak dinner on Saturday evening.

Please call the church office or email me at jordan.medas@lowchurch.org if you have any questions.

As we enter the season of Lent, a time of reflection and preparation, it is a time to slow down and reflect on all that God has given us and how we can give back to him. This month our children will be learning The Lord's Prayer and learning how prayer is a time to reflect and talk with God about anything in their lives. They continue to learn that God is their best friend and they can confide in him during good times and bad. They can lean on him when they need strength and thank him with praises in their daily life.

Please pray for the children at The Lake of the Woods Church, they face much greater challenges today than most of us did as children. During this reflection time of Lent say a prayer to protect our children, and ask God to wrap his arms around them so that they may feel his love each and every day.

Five church services, four devotionals, two missions training sessions, five team-building exercises, and an unsolicited worship time around the bonfire fit into one amazing weekend! The teens, their leaders, and their trainers (fifty in all) travelled to Edge Christian Camp in Surrey, VA for the annual Winter Missions Retreat. Eighteen first-time missionaries learned how to share the gospel with the Wordless Book from CEF missionaries, Rosemary Willaford and Cari Neff. Another group trained on how to build relationships through sports with martial arts trainer and PE teacher, Spike Richards. The third group trained on Navajo culture and missions methodologies with our Senior Associate Pastor, Rev. Adam Colson.

The teens performed exceptionally well, learning to defend their faith, share their faith, and function under pressure as a team while competing against four other teams to earn the most points for the weekend. My heart was warmed as teams played with enthusiasm, sportsmanship, and integrity as they gave their all. Teen after teen came forward in our final church service with fresh commitments to serve Christ through serving others in 2019. We also join heaven in rejoicing as one young lady received Christ in her life, and one young man rededicated his life to Christ.

Thank you, church family, for your ongoing prayers and support for this up and coming generation. Indeed, they are an awesome group who will have a tremendous impact for the Kingdom this summer.

In Christ,
John

A chaplain is essentially a spiritual representative who is serving in the community. The Chaplains from The Lake of the Woods Church have completed a 14 week course, completed an internship and have taken a written exam to be certified and commissioned by the church. Currently we have 6 Chaplains from our last class serving in visitation ministry, at our free medical clinic, and in our special needs’ ministry. We also have 5 students that are close to completing the chaplain course and are looking forward to being commissioned in the Spring.

All of our Chaplains are licensed and then commissioned by The Lake of the Woods Church. Last year, our chaplains helped repair a broken marriage, counseled medical patients who received a tough medical diagnosis, sat with a family who lost a loved one, prayed for victory with individuals struggling with addiction, and counseled clients involved in domestic abuse. Our chaplains receive ongoing training throughout the year that helps them continue to develop their skill and education base.

Did you know that The Lake of the Woods Church had a chaplain complete our training, and later went to serve in the Chaplain program at Mary Washington Hospital? Another one of our chaplains is serving as a rapid response Chaplain with Samaritan’s Purse. One of our students currently enrolled in our Chaplain’s course is taking the course in order to serve in the Correctional Facility and another is taking the training to serve with a nearby Fire and Rescue Dept.

Chaplain Ministry is a ministry of “presence”. Therefore Chaplains are expected to serve the spiritual and emotional needs of others and to be present and in the moment when someone is in need or hurting. Our Chaplains sit with patients in our free clinic, administer Communion to those in the hospital or are homebound, deliver spiritual messages, offer prayer, and provide regular counseling. Our Chaplains know their limits and will often refer “clients” to our counseling department when necessary.

Chaplains meet the need of the moment, usually through listening and prayer. Chaplains may also function as advocates; assisting individuals with medical, marital, domestic, or benevolence needs.

We will be offering another Chaplain class in the Fall. If you are interested in taking the class and serving as a Chaplain please contact Pastor Colson.

Prayer for Missions

Wonderful Counselor, you have told us to carry the message of hope to the hurting. We thank you for our counselors and chaplains who are daily listening, and caring, for those struggling in our community. Fortify our counselors and chaplains with all they need to serve you well and minister to those who are precious to you. May the name of the Lord Jesus Christ be glorified as your servants care for the abused. Amen.

March Women's Guild Programs
By Julie Phend

Women's Guild will be 40 years old this March!

Think of it. The Lake of the Woods Church Women's Guild has been providing friendship, fellowship and spiritual guidance for forty years. Stay tuned: we'll be having a big birthday celebration in May. In the meantime, we have some wonderful meetings planned for March.

Here's what's coming up:

March 7: Guild member Madeline Salustri will be our featured speaker. She will presenting her popular program, “Dr. Seuss for Grown-ups.” Accordionist Dale Wise will provide special music.

March 21: Brenda Rogers will speak about her recovery from extensive injuries suffered when she was hit by a car, and how God gave her strength and support during this difficult time.

Our service project for March is to provide cookies for Wednesday night soup suppers.

Women’s Guild meets the first and third Thursday of every month from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at The Lake of the Woods Church in Friendship Hall. Each meeting consists of a short devotion, prayer, and a featured speaker, followed by a simple meal and time for fellowship. The meetings are always interesting, fun, and spiritually rewarding. In addition, the group participates in a service project each month to benefit the wider community.

All women are welcome, regardless of church affiliation. Registration is not necessary, and there is no cost to attend. However, if you need childcare, please contact the church at 540-972-9060 by the Monday preceding the Guild meeting.

What is Faithbooking and Faithcarding?

Come to Friendship Hall any 2nd or 4th Thursday between 9:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. to see examples of keeping family memories and/or making all-occasion cards to share.

Led by Nancy Bowles, the group learns page-layouts, journaling, and how to use scrapbooking tools for embellishing their projects; including scripture, prayers, poems, etc. that give the reader knowledge of the faith shared with them.

During the month of March, the group will make glorious Easter cards. Come join us!

If you have questions, please contact Nancy Bowles (540) 972-9593 or Patty Bell (540) 972-1571.

“My whole family's giving up something for Lent. Mom's giving up cookies, Dad's giving up cake, and I'm giving up squash.”

To God you shall return
The traditional Ash Wednesday words “Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return” might seem depressing. But in our often death-denying culture, some might find it refreshing to hear the frank statement that we can do nothing to save ourselves, physically or spiritually — that, no matter how we try to avoid sin, we can’t untangle ourselves from self-interest. How liberating, then, to know we don’t have to! God loves us as we are and sent Jesus to break sin’s power over us.

A pastor described Ash Wednesday as the point you can pinch in the middle of a long piece of ribbon, such that when you lift it high, the two ends — one symbolizing our baptism and the other, our funeral — meet and touch. We come from dust and will return to dust, but we also come from God and will return to God. Ash Wednesday reminds us that we’re always safe in God’s love.
POWER OF PRAYER
